

LOWRY

We are going to visit
Lowry to watch
An Inspector Calls

Finding Lowry

Lowry is located on the Salford Quays and can be found on Pier 8 right next to the river.

It can be quite cold and windy outside, but it will be warm inside the building

Finding Lowry

Lowry is a large, metal and glass building made of lots of different shapes.

The entrance is located in a big square opposite the Quayside shopping centre.

When you arrive

Lowry has one main entrance that is at street level with step-free access. This floor is a largely level surface with tactile paving.

There is textured matt flooring in the entrance to Lowry building and the doors are automatic when activated by a push-button.

When you arrive

You will enter the building through the right set of doors. There will be friendly members of the Security Team to greet you.

You may be asked to open your bag so it can be checked, but don't worry, the team are doing this to help keep visitors safe.

Welcome Desk

The Front of House team are at the Welcome Desk during opening hours to welcome you and offer assistance, they can help you find your way around the building.

Inside the building it is very colourful with orange, yellow, red and purple surfaces. The floor is reflective, hard and slightly sloped.

Welcome Desk

The welcoming and friendly Front of House team are here to help. They will be wearing red or purple tops as seen in the image.

There will be other people there watching shows and eating dinner at the restaurant, but we will go straight up to our theatre which is called THE LYRIC THEATRE on level 1 beside the Welcome Desk.

Toilets

There are accessible toilets and Changing Places on the lower level opposite the cloak room.

The show will last a total of 1 hour and 50 minutes with no interval.

After the performance

If you wish to visit the toilet, do note that it will be busy and you might have to wait your turn.

There may also be a bit of a queue as you exit from the main entrance.

Have a lovely time!
